As lover of Rumi nothing gives greater joy and deeper wisdom than the teaching tales from late in his life. This collection includes all of the wry and naughty poems previously untranslated in the West.

Delicious Laughter: Rambunctious Teaching Stories from the Delicious Laughter is a secondary translation of teaching tales in verse by Rumi. By secondary translation I mean that Coleman Barks does not translate directly but works with others who can read the origin. However, Barks' sense of poetry, meaning and story make his versions excellent.
