Ideologically, expressionism in the German theatre was at first a drama of protest, reacting against the pre-war authority of the family and community, the rigid lines of the social order and eventually the industrialization of society and the mechanization of life. It was a violent drama of youth against age, freedom against authority.

it is hard to relate gender differences to today's modern society. Gender equality, and the fact that men are not as controlling anymore, contrast Nora and Torvald's situation. Reality shows gender equality (for the most part). The characters of the story have a lot of drama in their lives, dealing with love, betrayal, feminism, and crime.
